We would like to add examples of your photographs of previous Labor Day Celebrations to our historic Archive Photograph Collection.

PRESIDENT/EDITOR

Steve Israel

We receive letters from guests and members all of the time. Here are a couple of them that say a lot about our volunteers.

“Dear Mr. Mason,

The Graceful Seniors from Grace Lutheran Church want to thank you for the wonderful tour of the Black Diamond museum. Your presentation was so interesting, very well delivered, and the best part, most of our people could hear very well. You made it interesting and comfortable for all of us. We learned a great deal about the Black Diamond area, and the museum itself, was a real surprise and delight to many of us.

Many times we have been to the area, but just didn’t realize what a gem that museum is. You and other volunteers have made it one of the finest museums in the area. We appreciate your accommodating us on a non-scheduled day. Thanks to you and others, this will be an attraction for other groups to share and enjoy. We are passing the message along!

Sincerely yours, Jan Slezak”

“Dear JoAnne,

This is a quick note to tell you, our son that lives in Kent, sent me a book titled: “Black Diamond: Mining the Memories” 89. On page 170, the youth band, my brother Allen G. Bahr is sitting by the big drum. I knew he played the drum (base) in a school band but did not know where. So my sister and I shed a few more tears (happy ones, ha, ha). My sister recognized some of the names and pictures of places.

I am so glad we visited the museum when we were there. This is exciting and am learning lots.

Sincerely, Alma Bahr Freitag”

SECRETARY REPORT

By Dee Israel

July, Aug. & Sept. 2004

ARCHIVES: Chairperson JoAnne Matsumura reported that the quilts that are hanging on the walls in the book room of the Black Diamond Elementary School have now been donated to the Black Diamond Historical Society. At this time they will remain at the school. JoAnne has also advised that a 3-ring binder is being filled with copies of articles that have to do with the town of Franklin and will be available to peruse at the front desk.

The OLD TOWN sign of businesses that was on the corner of 3rd and Baker blew down in one of our windstorms of last winter. It is in the process of being replaced by The Black Diamond Merchants.

FACILITIES & GROUNDS: President Steve Israel has power washed the steps and handrails and Don Mason has painted the handrails and put a preservative on the steps. The pickets on the front porch have now been painted white and the trash container red. Steve and Don Botts have pruned back the junipers along the railroad tracks.

MEMBERSHIP: Chair Dee Israel has announced that we now have 267 Memberships. We have lost 11 due to death or non-payment of dues and gained 8 new memberships. The new memberships are for Lauri Jarvela, Ethel Estby Johnson, Mary Malgarini Kennedy, Bert Lombardini, Mike & Betty Manieri, Ron & Kathy Morris, Sandra Zumek Sonsteng and George & Lou Tantzen. We are happy you have all joined us and hope you are as excited as we are to share knowledge of this area's memories and people. We also want to thank those of you who have recently renewed your membership. The support of the members is what helps keep our Museum alive.

NEWSLETTER/WEBSITE: Chair Steve Israel has been in contact with Society Member Mike Pennachi who says he has been very busy but would like to help the Museum by setting up their website at the end of August. In the mean time, he will make a link between our new and old website.

TOURS: Chair Don Mason advised he recently had a busload of about 50 people from the National Railroad Assoc. come for a tour of the Museum.

VOLUNTEER COORDINATOR: Don Botts is still trying to locate members that could be a Docent at the Museum occasionally. If you or someone you know can help out, please call 360-886-2142 to volunteer. At this time we need help on the 4th Saturday of each month, but if you don't want to be tied down to a schedule, you can volunteer for just an occasional time.

PROGRAMS: Several cooks came to the Cook for the Cooks day and everyone seemed to have a good time. There was a feast of hamburgers or hotdogs (bar-b-cued by President Steve Israel), salads and desserts brought in by Society members who aren't normally the cooks. Each of the celebrated cooks received a corsage from the Society. Kathleen Kear, (the Voice of the Valley newspaper reporter) took a picture of the cooks and wrote an article about the celebration for the paper.

Coal Miner Days was on Friday and Saturday (July 16 & 17). President Steve Israel had a demonstration of old wood working tools. It was a couple of fun days.

We had a favorable response regarding the Cemetery Tour last fall, after the Membership Meeting, so we are doing it again this year. (Hopefully it won't rain on us this year.)

LABOR DAY: Chair Dee Israel advised that the same train as last year represented the Black Diamond Museum in the parade. Brian Mead was persuaded to be the engineer in the locomotive. His mother (Nancy Mead) and Dee Israel were the passengers in the passenger car and Brian's father (Clayton Mead) was the brakeman in the caboose. Society Members Brock and Tamie Deady and their children had coal buckets filled with what looked like coal, (but was actually chocolates wrapped in black foil) to throw out to the spectators along the parade route. The Boehm's Candy Company in Issaquah furnished the candy, and only charged the Society for the special wrapping to resemble coal. Thanks to all of you, the train was greeted merrily along the parade route. I would also like to thank Society Members Mel and Junette Larson for letting us use their carport to store the train until the start of the parade, and Don Botts & JoAnne Matsumura for being Docents and greeting the 150 guests that visited the Museum on Labor Day.

BY-LAWS: The Board of directors has approved some revisions to the Black Diamond Historical Society By-Laws. A copy of these revisions is available for examination by the members at the Museum during regular business hours. The Membership will then have the opportunity to accept or reject these By-Laws as written, at the Annual meeting on October 17th, 2004.

NOMINATIONS/ELECTIONS: Committee Chair Dorothy Botts has announced that each of the current Board Members and Officers have been nominated to be on the Board for another year. Our election procedure will be explained elsewhere in this newsletter, but it will be pretty much as last year.

THE CLASSMATES CORNER

By: Conrad 'Coke' Roberts

The Black Diamond School Reunion, "Be Alive in 2005", will be held at the Black Diamond Eagles hall on June 3, 2005.

C. G. Coke Roberts, Chairman of the School Reunion Committee and his committee members are asking former Black Diamond High School or grade school students for help in advertising the reunion.

For example, starting in January of 2005 the reunion committee would like to place posters in stores announcing the reunion not only in Black Diamond stores but also in stores in Renton, Maple Valley, Kent, Enumclaw, etc. If you know how to design and silkscreen posters we need you!

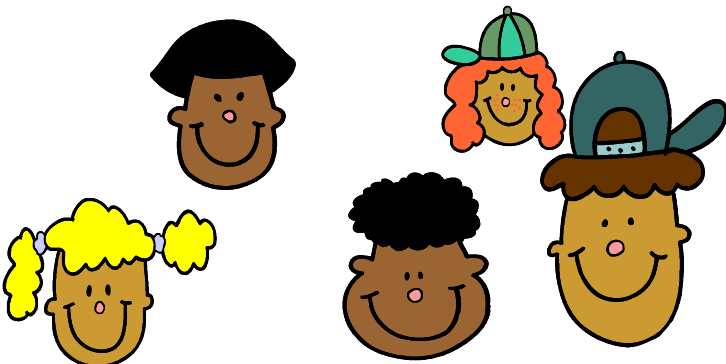

Another advertising idea would be to have little magnetic "coal cars" to put on refrigerators as reminders of the reunion. If you know where we could with your help get them made, we need you!

The committee has also found out that many high schools and junior high schools pep clubs have button machines that can make informational buttons. You buy all the parts to make the buttons and you put them together. Can you help us with this project??

The reunion committee will be handling all of the printing and mail out costs. The registration forms will be mailed out in late January that will be five months before the reunion.

If you can help us with any of these projects give Coke a call at 253-833-6294 or call any of the committee members; Walter Clark, Joe Zumek, Lynda Maks, Leasha Janet, Harry Berry, Pat Walsh, or Don Botts.

And if you are unable to attend be sure you send that snapshot of yourself for the Alumni Photograph Album, to JoAnne Matsumura, at the Society address on page one. ♦

Esther Vernarelli Babb
July 4, 1910 - July 1, 2004

Esther was born in Black Diamond, Washington, born to Stephano and Elisabetti Vernarelli, living there all her life. She died at her home with her family by her side.

A Memorial Service was held July 7, 2004 at St. Barbara Church in Black Diamond, Father Chuck officiating. Inurnment took place at Enumclaw Cemetery.

Esther's name in Italian is Celestra; Cel derived from Celestial meaning heavenly or sky blue and estra apparently meaning Esther. Her Mother called her simply Ce'le, but some of the nieces and nephews called her Ce'la - Ce as in cello and la as in laugh.

In her youth, Esther demonstrated a talent in artwork - paintings and personalized greeting cards with superb handwriting - calligraphy. She was skilled in cooking and canning and should have written the book on dieting. While Esther was down to earth, she had an appreciation for eternal, heavenly things and at times describing heaven, referring to the Lord Jesus. Her laugh was easy and frequent and she was generally an up beat person and funny.

Esther was community minded and served in various activities. During World War II she served as an Observer involving enemy aircraft sighting for Black Diamond. She associated herself with the Black Diamond Senior Center, Sons of Italy Lodge, Rebecca Lodge, and the Black Diamond Historical Society (Museum).

For a number of years, Esther worked at the Buckley School for Children with special needs, and at the Black Diamond Bakery preparing the dough for the oven.

Once in a while she made a special trip, like going to the Hawaiian Islands to visit her daughter Nadine.

Esther was a caregiver, especially in time of need for her father, mother, husband and daughter, and for her pets. She had a number of dogs and cats. Nikki - a spot terrier - lived for over 20 years. He had his own little house on the deck complete with pre-warmed blankets.

Father Chuck, at the service, remarked that she put ice cubes in the pet's water in hot weather. Some of her cats ate spaghetti. Her friends were treated to her soup; a cure-all for whatever ailed them.

Esther was very comfortable in her new home - just below the original Vernarelli house - just below the Bakery. From the swing on the deck she could survey the neighborhood, especially watching her grandchildren and their friends.

Esther is survived by her grandson Greg (Kim) Sambrano; great granddaughter Karleigh; great grandsons Chase, Colton, and Kyler; a sister Concelia Vernarelli Picini; a sister-in-law Margaret Morganti Vernarelli; cousins Visia Vernarelli Ham, and Edia Vernarelli Herrman; and second cousins, nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Henry Babb; her daughter Nadine (Leroy) Sambrano; her brothers Diodato - "Duda", Geremia - "James / Jim", Romeo - "Rome", and Stephano Jr. - "Stevie"; and half brother Luigi Mancini, and half sister Mary Mancini Vernarelli.

Her family meant much to her. Her grandchildren said it all as noted in the obituary at her service: "We love you Grama, you will always be in our hearts."

PICTURE OF THE PAST NEED HELP!

In our July 2004 quarterly newsletter we asked for some help to identify who the cheerful looking lady was. We received two different answers. Is it Mary Logan, Ravensdale Post Mistress or Hazel Callero?? Another reply was the location was Bayne, WA. Maybe BDHS Member Roy Callero Jr. can help solve the mystery. ♦

IN MEMORIAM

We were informed of the passing of four of our Members after this newsletter was nearly complete. The names of the four individuals are: Roy Callero, Sr., Virtue May Gingrich, Alfred Robert Shay, Sophia Fosnick Stebbins and Mr. Robert Burdick. The Black Diamond Historical Society expresses condolences to the families on behalf of its Membership.

CORRECTION: IN MEMORIAM

We inadvertently reported in our previous issue Angelo Carnino's wife as a survivor. His wife Evelyn Carnino preceded Angelo in death on November 27, 1993. We apologize for this error. ♦
