BLACK DIAMOND MINERS DAY EVENT JULY 11, 2026 - AGREEMENT/CONTRACT PAGE 2

Exhibitors agree to run their own booths and set up in a timely manner. If the exhibitor is not set up 39 minutes before event hours (9 AM Saturday July 11th), the booth chair may sell their space to another exhibitor. There is no refund of booth fees. Exhibitors are required to collect Washington State Sales tax, which is .087%. If you do not have a tax number or need a tax schedule, contact the Washington State Department of Revenue.

Exhibitors agree to pay the appropriate booth fee (see page 1). Booth fees are non-refundable within two (2) weeks of the event date, subject to a 25% handling fee. Please keep your display dimensions within your allotted space and do not encroach upon space assigned to another exhibitor.

Exhibitors agree to provide equipment for display of their own merchandise, booth covers that are wind secured, tables, etc. The sun can be a problem as well as rain. Be prepared for inclement weather.

Exhibitors agree to describe your products or services. If it is different from what was represented, you may be asked to remove it. Items deemed inappropriate for a family event or which create a hazard cannot be sold at BD Miners Day. Items not allowed include alcoholic beverages or products, stink bombs, fake cigarettes, fart spray, fireworks, weapons (knives, cap guns, swords, pocket knives, whips, etc.).

Exhibitors agree to use booth space in a reasonable and non-offensive manner subject to public health and safety regulations and subject to the rules and regulations of the event. No hawking is allowed.

Exhibitors agree to clean their booth sites and surrounding areas during and at the end of the event as well as leaving their area clean after tear down. No tear down will be allowed until after the close of the event at 4:00 pm on Saturday, July 11, 2026, or as advised by the event chair.

Exhibitors agree to refrain from consuming drugs or alcohol on the event premises and to comply with all state and local festival regulations. No firearms, drugs or alcohol are allowed on the property.

Liability Statement: Black Diamond Miners Day officials reserve the right to restrict or remove exhibits without refund that may have been falsely entered or deemed by the officials to be unsuitable or objectionable. This restriction applies to noise, music, persons, animals, birds, things, conduct, printed matter or anything that might be objectionable to the event officials.

Exhibitors will assume responsibility for their own merchandise and display equipment and will hold harmless the City of Black Diamond, the Black Diamond Miners Day Committee/officials, Black Diamond Historical Society, their officers, employees, sponsors and agents from any loss or damage to any persons or property caused by the applicant's operation in accordance with the Miners Day event and further agrees to defend said Associations and the City for any claims for such damage.

Food vendors assume all responsibility for their product(s) and must package and sell according to all applicable State and local ordinances that apply.

The Black Diamond Miners Day Event and its Agents will not be responsible for loss of sales due to inclement weather, natural disaster, legal restriction or ordinance, unlawful acts or acts of God and does not guarantee sales.
